Sheraton Casino Opens a New, Comfortable, Casual Steak House

Tunica, Miss. (January 11, 2008) –Sheraton Casino and Hotel, the home of the Hot Spot, is proud to announce the opening of The Steak House by Sheraton.

Casual elegance best describes the atmosphere where guests feel at home and experience what some have called a great value. Dining on unpretentious dark wood grain tables awash in soft lighting sets the mood for a seriously down home type of meal that is sure to satisfy. Entrees, served with the famous steak house spinning salad and side, range from $17 to $30 with lobster and the fresh catch varying on the daily market price.

Appetizers include: garlic cheese bread, Saratoga chips with sweet & spicy sauce, roasted corn fritters with lump crab meat salad and crispy fried frog legs. Entrees include: slow-roasted prime rib, center cut filets, bone-in rib eye and New York strip steaks, lobster, Mississippi catfish, herb roasted chicken, pan sautéed rainbow trout with toasted almonds and smokehouse bacon, and New Orleans barbequed shrimp served with dirty rice and red beans. Sweets, served from the dessert trolley, include: triple chocolate cake, New York style cheesecake, crème brulee, mile high carrot cake, Granny Smith apple crumble and a gold brick sundae.
