

It'll be “Almost Perfect” when Ingram Hill Comes to Sam’s Town

In the summer of 2000, after attending the University of Memphis, childhood friends Justin Moore (lead vocals, rhythm guitar) and Phil Bogard (lead guitar) joined with Shea Sowell (bass, background vocals) and Matt Chambliss (drums) to form the band. They spent much of the next year and a half touring throughout the south and southeast. They played their first show August 23, 2000 in Oxford, Mississippi.

In 2002, the band released an EP, Until Now, on Traveler Records, an independent label. The lead singer of Tonic, Emerson Hart, produced five of the tracks on Until Now. As a result of the band’s touring efforts with bands such as Hootie & the Blowfish, over 10,000 copies of Until Now were sold throughout the country.

Sometime along the way, new songs were written, rehearsed, and recorded to create Ingram Hill’s first full length album, June’s Picture Show. Rick Beato (Charlie Mars, Shinedown, and others) produced this album. Intended as an independent release, Hollywood Records later re-released the album as part of a new major label deal.

Released in February 2004, two tracks from June’s Picture Show have become Billboard Adult Contemporary Hits: “Will I Ever Make it Home” and “Almost Perfect.” Ingram Hill continues to tour, appearing both as headline act and support for artists including Maroon 5, Better than Ezra, Lisa Marie Presley, and Hanson. The band also performed a cover of Boston’s “More Than a Feeling” for the “Herbie” soundtrack.

Ingram Hill will be at Sam’s Town Wednesday, November 26 for one show only at 8pm. Tickets are $15 and are available at the Sam’s Town Box Office and online at www.ticketmaster.com. For more information, call 1-800-456-0711.
